Eddie Thomas

Eddie was Chief Executive and Finance Director of a national charity before joining Law Debenture in December 2002. Prior to that he was a partner at pension consultants Bacon & Woodrow, involved in the management of the firm and responsible for wide ranging advice to pension clients in the public and private sectors.

His clients included large plcs, public bodies, trade unions, housing associations, charities and individuals. He usually enjoyed a wide brief encompassing actuarial advice, legal aspects, investment, communication, HR issues and administration.

He serves on the trustee boards, investment and audit committees of a number of schemes of differing sizes, and also chairs several groups of trustees.

Eddie is an Actuary and an Associate of the Pensions Management Institute and an Associate of the Chartered Insurance Institute.
